2. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person on board an aircraft in flight who unlawfully, by the use of force or by threats of any kind, seizes the aircraft or exercises control of it commits the offence of hijacking, whatever his nationality, whatever the country or territory in which the aircraft is registered and whether the aircraft is in Antigua and Barbuda or elsewhere. Hijacking.

(2) If—

(4) For the purposes of this section the period during which an aircraft is in flight shall be deemed to include any period from the moment when all its external doors are closed following embarkation until the moment when any such door is opened for disembarkation, and, in the case of a forced landing, any period until the competent authorities take over responsibility for the aircraft and for persons and property on board.

(a) that any two or more States named in the order have established an organisation or agency which operates aircraft; and

(b) that one of those States has been designated as exercising, for aircraft so operated, the powers of the State of registration, the State declared under paragraph (b) shall be deemed for the purposes of this Act to be the State in which any aircraft so operated is registered; but, in relation to such an aircraft, section 1 (2) (b) shall have effect as if it referred to the territory of any one of the States named in the order.
