SCHEDULE

(Section 4)

The Constitution of the Order of Antigua and Barbuda

1. (1) The Order of Antigua and Barbuda, hereafter referred to as "the Order" shall consist of the Governor-General of Antigua and Barbuda and the members and honorary members of the Order.

(2) Every citizen of Antigua and Barbuda to whom the Order of the Nation, the Order of Distinction, Order of Honour or the Order of Merit is awarded is a member of the Order.

(3) Every person other than a citizen of Antigua and Barbuda to whom the Order of Distinction, Order of Honour and the Order of Merit is awarded on an honorary basis is an Honorary Member of the Order.

2. The Governor-General of Antigua and Barbuda shall, by virtue of that office, be the Chancellor of the Order.

3. The Chancellor is charged with the administration of the Order.

4. The Senior Executive Officer to the Governor-General shall be secretary to the Order and shall maintain the records of the Order, arrange for investitures and perform such other functions in respect of the Order as the Governor-General may require him to perform.

5. The Governor-General may appoint such other officials for the Order as may be necessary.

6. (1) There shall be a National Awards Committee for the Order (hereinafter called "the Committee") comprising seven members appointed by the Prime Minister, so however, that one shall be a Senator nominated by the Senate and two shall be members of the House of Representatives nominated by the House, one of whom shall be a member of the opposition.

(2) The appointment of a member to the National Awards Committee shall be for a period not exceeding three years, but a person whose appointment expires shall be eligible for reappointment.

(3) The Prime Minister shall appoint—

(a) a Chairman of the National Awards Committee from amongst the members thereof; and

(b) a secretary to the Committee.

(4) The quorum of the Committee shall be five members.

(5) Any expenses incurred by the Committee in the performance of its functions shall be paid out of funds provided for the purpose by Parliament.

7. The Committee shall:

(a) consider nominations of persons for national awards together with recommendations and supporting materials received by the Committee for awards of the Order of the Nation, the Order of Distinction, Order of Honour and Order of Merit;

(b) compile separate lists in respect of the Order of Antigua and Barbuda and of each medal of those nominees to whom an award may be made;

(c) forward to the Prime Minister the lists compiled pursuant to paragraph (b) together with its recommendations respecting awards;

(d) advise the Governor-General in respect of any other matters concerning the Order referred to it by the Governor-General for consideration.

8. A person shall not be a member or honorary member of the Order by reason only of the fact that he is a member of the Committee or an official of the Order.

9. Any person or organisation may submit to the Committee for its consideration a nomination of a citizen of Antigua and Barbuda for an award of the Order of the Nation, the Order of Distinction, the Order of Honour or the Order of Merit.

10. (1) Awards of the Order of the Nation, the Order of Distinction, the Order of Honour and the Order of Merit shall be made by Instrument signed by the Governor-General and sealed with the Seal of the Order and shall have effect from the date of the affixing of the Seal unless another effective date is specified in the Instrument.

(2) The power conferred on the Governor-General shall be exercised by him on the advice of the Prime Minister given after consideration of the recommendation of the National Awards Committee.

(3) Only citizens of Antigua and Barbuda are eligible for the Order of the Nation.

(4) Only persons other than citizens of Antigua and Barbuda are eligible for the award of the Order of Distinction, the Order of Honour or the Order of Merit on an honorary basis.

(5) Any distinguished citizen of a country other than Antigua and Barbuda whom Antigua and Barbuda desires to honour may be awarded the Order of Distinction, the Order of Honour or the Order of Merit on an honorary basis.

(6) Awards of the Order of Distinction, the Order of Honour and the Order of Merit to persons other than citizens of Antigua and Barbuda shall be made on the advice of the Prime Minister.
