(3) Within five days after the presentation of the petition, the petitioner shall serve on the respondent a notice of the presentation of the petition, and of the nature of the proposed security, and a copy of the petition.

(4) Within five days after service of the notice, the respondent may object in writing to any recognisance on the ground that any surety is insufficient or is dead or cannot be found or ascertained for want of sufficient description in the recognisance, or that a person named in the recognisance has not duly acknowledged the recognisance.

(5) An objection to a recognisance shall be decided in the prescribed manner.

(6) If the objection is allowed, the petitioner may within five days, remove it by a deposit in the prescribed manner of such sum of money as will, in the opinion of the court or officer having cognizance of the matter, make the security sufficient.

(7) If no security is given as required by this section or any objection is allowed and not removed as aforesaid, no further proceedings shall be had on the petition.

(3) Where more petitions than one are presented relating to the same election, all those petitions shall be bracketed together in the election list and shall be dealt with as one petition, standing, unless the election court otherwise direct, in the election list in the place where the last of them would have stood if it had been the only petition presented.

Trial of petition.

50. (1) An election petition shall be tried in open court, without a jury, and notice of the time and place of trial shall be given in the prescribed manner, not less than seven days before the day of trial.

(2) The election court may in its discretion adjourn the trial from time to time, but the trial shall so far as is practicable, consistently with the interests of justice in respect of the trial, be continued from day to day on every lawful day until its conclusion.

(3) On the trial of a petition, unless the court otherwise directs, any charge of a corrupt practice may be gone into, and evidence in relation thereto received, before any proof has been given of agency on behalf of any candidate in respect of the corrupt practice.

(4) On the trial of a petition complaining of undue election and claiming the seat for some other person, the respondent may give evidence to prove that that other person was not duly elected, in the same manner as if he had presented a petition against the election of that other person.

(5) If the petition relates to an election conducted under the Election Rules and it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the election, and that the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, then the court shall forthwith make an order for the holding of a new election which election shall be held in accordance, mutatis mutandis, with the provisions of the Election Rules relating to an election in which the death of a candidate has occurred after nomination and before the poll is held.

51. (1) Witnesses shall be summoned and sworn in ^{Witnesses.} the same manner as nearly as circumstances admit as in an action tried at the assizes.

(5) The Director of Public Prosecutions shall obey any direction given him by the election court with respect to the summoning and examination of any witness to give evidence at the trial.

(7) A person called as a witness respecting an election before any election court shall not be excused from answering any question relating to any offence at or connected with the election, on the ground of privilege:

Provided that—

(a) a witness who answers truly all questions which he is required by the election court to answer shall in the discretion of the court be eligible to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the court stating that the witness has so answered; and

(b) an answer by a person to a question put by or before any election court shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be in any proceeding, civil or criminal, admissible in evidence against him.

(8) The giving or refusal to give a certificate of indemnity to a witness by an election court trying a petition questioning an election shall be final and conclusive.

(9) Where a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an election, and any legal proceeding is at any time instituted against him for any corrupt or illegal practice committed by him previously to the date of the certificate at or in relation to the election, or any illegal payment, employment or hiring or offence under section 36 or section 55 so committed, the court having cognizance of the case shall on production of the certificate stay the proceeding, and may in its discretion award to the said person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceeding.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to relieve a person receiving a certificate of indemnity from any incapacity under this Act or from any proceedings to enforce that incapacity other than a criminal prosecution.

(11) The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in appearing to give evidence at the trial of an election petition, according to the scale allowed to witnesses on the trial of civil actions, may be allowed to him by a certificate of the election court or of the prescribed officer, and if the witness was called and examined by virtue of subsection (2) shall be deemed part of the expenses of providing a court, but otherwise shall be deemed costs of the petition.

52. (1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the election court shall determine whether the member whose election or return is complained of, or any and what other person, was duly returned or elected or whether the election was void or whether there was an equality of votes at that election, and shall forthwith certify in writing the determination to the Speaker, and the determination so certified shall be final to all intents and purposes.

Conclusion of trial of election petition.

(2) Where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt or illegal practice having been committed at the election the court shall, in addition to giving a certificate, and at the same time, make a report to the Speaker as required by sections 64 and 66 also stating whether corrupt or illegal practices have, or whether there is reason to believe that corrupt or illegal practices have, extensively prevailed at the election.

(3) The election court may at the same time make a special report to the Speaker as to matters arising in the course of the trial an account of which in the judgment of the court ought to be submitted to the House of Representatives.

(4) Every report sent to the Speaker under this section shall be signed by the judge of the election court.

(5) The House of Representatives, on being informed by the Speaker of a certificate and any report of an election court, shall order the certificate and report (if any) to be entered in the report of the House and shall give the necessary direction for confirming or altering the return, or for the issue of a writ for a new election, or for carrying the determination into execution, as the circumstances may require; and where the court make a special report, the House of Representatives may make such order in respect of that report as they think proper.

53. (1) A petitioner shall not withdraw an election petition without the leave of the election court on special application.

Withdrawal of petition.

(2) The application shall not be made until the prescribed notice of the intention to make it has been given in the constituency to which the petition relates.

(3) Where there are more petitioners than one, the application shall not be made except with the consent of all petitioners.

(4f) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

Evidence required for

54. (1) Before leave for the withdrawal of an election petition is granted, there shall be produced affidavits by all the parties to the petition and their solicitors, but the election court may on cause shown dispense with the affidavit of any particular person if it seems to the court on special grounds to be just so to do.

(2) Each affidavit shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, no agreement or terms of any kind whatsoever has or have been made, and no undertaking has been entered into, in relation to the withdrawal of the petition; but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

(3) The affidavit of the applicant shall further state the ground on which the petition is sought to be withdrawn.

(4) Copies of the said affidavits shall be delivered to the Director of Public Prosecutions a reasonable time before the application for the withdrawal is heard, and the court may hear the Director of Public Prosecutions in opposition to the allowance of the withdrawal of the petition, and shall have power to receive the evidence on oath of any person or persons whose evidence the Director of Public Prosecutions or his assistant, or other representative, may consider material.

(5) The jurisdiction vested by subsection (1) in the High Court in matters relating to elections shall, subject to rules of court, be exercised by a judge sitting either in court or at chambers.

55. If any person makes any agreement or terms or enters into any undertaking, in relation to the withdrawal of an election petition, and such agreement, terms or undertaking is or are for the withdrawal of an election petition, in consideration of any payment or in consideration that the seat or office shall at any time be vacated, or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other election petition, or is or are (whether lawful or unlawful) not mentioned in the aforesaid affidavits, he shall be liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for twelve months and to a fine of three thousand dollars.

Punishment for corrupt withdrawal.

56. (1) On the hearing of the application for leave to withdraw, any person who may have been eligible to be a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner, and the court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

Substitution of a new petitioner.

(2) If the proposed withdrawal is in the opinion of the court the result of any agreement, terms or undertaking prohibited by the last foregoing section or induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, the court may by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that, to the extent of the sum named in the security, the original petitioner and his sureties shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petition.

(3) If the court does not so direct, then security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petition, and subject to the like conditions, shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition and within the prescribed time after the order of substitution.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, a substituted petitioner shall, as nearly as may be, stand in the same position and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

57. (1) In every case of the withdrawal of an election petition, the court giving leave for the withdrawal shall make a report to the Speaker as required by subsection (2).

Report on withdrawal.

(2) The report shall state whether in the opinion of the court the withdrawal of the petition was the result of any agreement, terms or undertaking or was in consideration of any payment, or in consideration that the seat or office should at any time be vacated or in consideration of the withdrawal of any other election petition or for any other consideration, and, if so, shall state the circumstances attending the withdrawal.

(b) the respondent has given notice to the prescribed officer that he does not intend to oppose the petition;

(c) no party has been admitted under the following provisions to defend the petition; and

(d) there is no petition complaining of the other member returned on the double return, the petitioner may withdraw by notice addressed to the prescribed officer who upon receipt of the notice shall report the fact of the withdrawal to the Speaker; and the House of Representatives shall thereupon give the necessary direction for amending the double return by striking out the certificate by which the respondent declining to oppose the petition was returned, or otherwise as the case may require.

Abatement of petition.

59. (1) An election petition shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

(2) The abatement shall not affect the liability of the petitioner or any other person to the payment of costs previously incurred.

(3) On the abatement the prescribed notice thereof shall be given in the constituency to which the petition relates; and within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the election court or in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed time and place to be substituted as a petitioner; and the court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(4) Security shall be given on behalf of a petitioner so substituted, as in the case of a new petition.

60. (1) If before the trial of an election petition a respondent other than a returning officer gives the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition or dies, notice thereof shall be given in the constituency to which the petition relates, and, within the prescribed time after notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the election court to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition and shall be admitted accordingly, except that the number of persons so admitted shall not exceed three.

Withdrawal and substitution of respondents before trial.

(2) A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against the petition in any proceedings thereon, and he shall not sit or vote in the House of Representatives until the House of Representatives has been informed of the report on the petition.

(3) Where a respondent to an election petition has given the said notice in the prescribed time and manner the election court shall report that fact to the Speaker.

61. All costs of and incidental to the presentation of an election petition and the proceedings consequent thereon, except such as are by this Act otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the election court may determine; and in particular any costs which in the opinion of the election court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections on the part either of the petitioner or of the respondent, and any needless expense incurred or caused on the part of the petitioner or respondent, may be ordered to be defrayed by the parties by whom it has been incurred or caused whether or not they are on the whole successful.

Costs of petition.

Further provision as to costs of petition.

62. (1) If it appears to the court that any person or persons is or are proved, whether by providing money or otherwise, to have been extensively engaged in corrupt practices or to have encouraged or promoted extensive corrupt practices in reference to the election, the court may, after giving that person or those persons an opportunity of being heard by counsel or solicitor and examining and cross-examining witnesses to show cause why the order should not be made, order the whole or part of the costs to be paid by that person, or those persons or any of them, and may order that if the costs cannot be recovered from one or more of those persons they shall be paid by some other of those persons or by either of the parties to the petition.

(b) shall be made before the presiding officer at the time when the voter applies to vote with the assistance of a companion and shall forthwith be given to the presiding officer who shall attest and retain it.

(6) No fee or other payment shall be charged in respect of the declaration.

46. (1) If a person, representing himself to be—

Tendered ballot papers.

(a) a particular elector named on the register and not named in the absent voters list; or

(b) a particular person named in the list of proxies as proxy for an elector, applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted in person either as the elector or his proxy, the applicant shall, on satisfactorily answering the questions permitted by law to be asked at the poll, be entitled, subject to the following provisions of this rule, to mark a ballot paper in these rules referred to as "a tendered ballot paper" in the same manner as any other voter.

(2) A tendered ballot paper shall—

(a) be of a colour differing from the other ballot papers;

(b) instead of being put into the ballot box, be given to the presiding officer and endorsed by him with the name of the voter and his number in the register of electors, and set aside in a separate packet.

(3) The name of the voter and his number on the register of electors shall be entered on a list in these rules referred to as the "tendered votes list."

(4) In the case of a person voting as proxy for an elector, the number to be endorsed or entered together with the name of the voter shall be the number of that elector.

Spoilt ballot papers.

47.^d A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering it to the presiding officer and proving to his satisfaction the fact of the inadvertence, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered in these rules referred to as "a spoilt ballot paper" and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled.

Adjournment of poll in case of riot, etc.

48. (1) Where the proceedings at any polling station are interrupted or obstructed by riot or open violence, or by the occurrence of any earthquake, hurricane, flood, fire, outbreak of pestilence or other calamity, the presiding officer shall adjourn the proceedings till the following day and shall forthwith give notice to the returning officer.

(2) Where the poll is adjourned at any polling station—

(a) the hours of polling on the day to which it is adjourned shall be the same as for the original day; and

(b) references in this Act to the close of the poll shall be construed accordingly.

(3) Where the poll is adjourned under the preceding provisions of this rule the presiding officer shall either—

(a) secure and seal the polling station, having first ascertained that no persons remain upon the premises; or

(b) having first sealed each ballot box with his own seal, remove the ballot boxes and all other papers relating to the poll to some other secure place and in such latter event the polling agent of any candidate may upon request accompany and remain with such papers at such secure place until the resumption of the poll.

Procedure on close of poll.

49. (1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer shall, in the presence of the polling agents, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal and the seal of such polling agents as desired to affix their seals—

(a) each ballot box in use at the station, sealed so as to prevent the introduction of additional ballot papers and unopened, but with the key attached;

(b) the unused and spoilt ballot papers placed together;

(c) the tendered ballot papers;

(d) the marked copies of the register of electors and of the list of proxies;

(e) the counterfoils of the used ballot papers and the certificates as to employment on duty on the day of the poll;

(f) the tendered votes list, the list of blind voters assisted by companions, the list of voters marked by the presiding officer, a statement of the number of voters whose votes are so marked by the presiding officer under the heads "physical incapacity" and "unable to read", the declarations made by the companions of blind voters, and the poll book, and shall, accompanied by two police officers, deliver the packets personally to the returning officer to be taken charge of by him:

Provided that a polling agent of each candidate may, upon request, accompany the presiding officer from the polling station until he delivers the packets to the returning officer.

(2) The marked copies of the register of electors and of the list of proxies shall be in one packet but shall not be in the same packet as the counterfoils of the used ballot papers and the certificates as to employment on duty on the day of the poll.

(3) The packet shall be accompanied by a statement (in these rules referred to as "the ballot paper account") made by the presiding officer showing the number of ballot papers entrusted to him, and accounting for them under the heads of ballot papers issued and not otherwise accounted for, unused, spoilt and tendered ballot papers.

50. (1) The returning officer shall make arrangements for counting the votes in the presence of the counting agents as soon as practicable after the close of the poll, and shall give to the counting agents notice in writing of the time and place at which he will begin to count the votes, and shall designate a portion of such place to be a reserved area, within which the actual counting of votes will take place.

Attendance at counting of votes.

(2) No person other than—

(a) the returning officer and his clerks;

(b) the candidates; and

(c) the counting agents,

may be present within the reserved area at the counting of the votes, unless permitted by the returning officer to attend.

(3) The returning officer shall give the counting agents all such reasonable facilities for overseeing the proceedings, and all such information with respect thereto, as he can give them consistent with the orderly conduct of the proceedings and the discharge of his duties in connection therewith.

(4) In particular, where the votes are counted by sorting the ballot papers according to the candidate for whom the vote is given and then counting the number of ballot papers for each candidate, the counting agents shall be entitled to satisfy themselves that the ballot papers are correctly sorted.

The count.

51. (1) The returning officer shall not count any tendered ballot paper.

(2) The returning officer, while counting and recording the number of ballot papers and counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the back of the ballot papers.

(3) The returning officer shall verify each ballot paper account by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by him, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list opening and resealing the packets containing the unused and spoilt ballot papers and the tendered votes list and shall draw up a statement as to the result of the verification, which any counting agent may copy.

(4) The returning officer shall, so far as practicable, proceed continuously with counting the votes.

Recount.

52. (1) A candidate, if present when the counting or any re-count of the votes is completed, may require the returning officer to have the votes re-counted or again re-counted but the returning officer may refuse to do so if in his opinion the request is unreasonable.

(2) No step shall be taken on the completion of the counting or any re-count of votes until the candidates at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this rule.

Rejected ballot papers.

53. (1) Any ballot paper—

(a) which does not bear the official mark;

(b) on which votes are given for more than one candidate;

(c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified; or

(d) which is unmarked or void for uncertainty, shall, subject to the provisions of the next following subrule be void and not counted.

(2) A ballot paper on which the vote is marked—

(a) elsewhere than in the proper place;

(b) otherwise than by means of a cross; or

(c) by more than one mark, shall not by reason thereof be deemed to be void if an intention that the vote shall be for one or other of the candidates clearly appears, and the way the paper is marked does not of itself identify the voter and it is not shown that he can be identified thereby.

(3) The returning officer shall endorse the word "rejected" on any ballot paper which under this rule is not to be counted, and shall add to the endorsement the words "rejection objected to" if an objection is made by a counting agent to his decision.

(4) The returning officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected under the several heads of—

(a) want of official mark;

(b) voting for more than one candidate;

(c) writing or mark by which voter could be identified;

(d) unmarked or void for uncertainty,

and any counting agent may copy the statement.

54. The decision of the returning officer on any question arising in respect of a ballot paper shall be final, but shall be subject to review on an election petition. Decisions on ballot papers.

55. (1) Where, after the counting of the votes, including any recount, is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote would entitle any of these candidates to be declared elected then the returning officer shall forthwith make a declaration under rule 56 that an equality of votes has been ascertained and that no candidate has been elected and shall endorse the writ to that effect and deliver the certified writ to the Supervisor of Elections. Equality of votes.

(2) Upon receipt of the writ certified as in subrule (1) the Supervisor shall declare that a fresh election for that constituency shall be held and all proceedings with reference to that election shall be commenced afresh in all respects as if the writ had been received on the day on which the Supervisor of Elections makes the declaration:

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person standing nominated and with an equality of votes.

Part IV

FINAL PROCEEDINGS IN CONTESTED AND UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

Declaration of result.

56. (1) In a contested election, when the result of the poll has been ascertained, the returning officer shall forthwith either—

- (a) (i) declare to be elected the candidate to whom the majority of votes has been given; and
- (ii) return his name to the Supervisor of Elections; or
- (b) (i) declare that there has been an equality of votes and that no candidate has been elected; and
- (ii) return the fact that there has been an equality of votes to the Supervisor of Elections, and in either case give public notice of his name or their names and of the total number of votes given for each candidate together with the number of rejected ballot papers under each head shown in the statement of rejected ballot papers.

(2) In an uncontested election, the Statement of Persons Nominated, in addition to showing the person standing nominated, shall also declare that person elected, and the returning officer shall forthwith return his name to the Clerk to Parliament and the Supervisor of Elections.

Return to writ.

57. (1) The returning officer shall return the name of the member elected by endorsing on the writ a certificate in Form 1 in the Appendix hereto.

(2) Any provision of the Constitution, any rule or law or enactment as to the effect of, or manner of dealing with, the return of a member to serve in the House of Representatives shall apply to the certificate.

(3) The returning officer shall deliver the writ with the certificate endorsed thereon to the Supervisor of Elections.

58. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall from the certificate on each writ returned to him enter the name of the member returned in a book to be kept by him at his office. Record of returns.

(2) The Supervisor of Elections shall also enter in the book any declaration of equality of votes, any double return and any alteration or amendment made by him in the certificate endorsed on any writ.

(3) The book shall be open to public inspection at reasonable times and any person may, on payment of a reasonable fee, take copies from the book.

59. (1) Subject to the provisions of subrules (4) and (5) of this rule, the deposit made under rule 9 shall either be returned to the person making it or his personal representatives or be forfeited to Antigua and Barbuda. Return or forfeiture of candidates' deposits.

(2) Except in the cases hereinafter mentioned in this rule, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(3) If the candidate is not shown as standing nominated in the statement of persons nominated, or if the poll is countermanded or abandoned by reason of his death, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the publication of the statement or after his death, as the case may be.

(4) Subject to the last foregoing subrule the deposit shall be forfeited if a poll is taken and, after the counting of the votes by the returning officer (including any re-count) is completed, the candidate is found not to have polled more than one-eighth of the total number of votes polled by all the candidates.

(5) Notwithstanding anything in the three last foregoing subrules, if at a general election a candidate is shown as standing nominated in more than one constituency in the statements of persons nominated, not more than one of the deposits shall be returned and, if necessary, the Supervisor of Elections shall direct which it is to be.

Part V

DISPOSAL OF DOCUMENTS

Verification of ballot paper account.

60. (1) On the completion of the counting at a contested election the returning officer shall seal up in separate packets the counted and rejected ballot papers.

(2) The returning officer shall then in the presence of the counting agents verify each ballot paper account by comparing it with the number of ballot papers recorded by him, and the unused and spoilt ballot papers in his possession and the tendered votes list (opening and resealing the packets containing the unused and spoilt papers and the tendered votes list) and shall draw up a statement as to the result of the verification, which any counting agent may copy.

(3) The returning officer shall not open the sealed packets of tendered ballot papers or of counterfoils and certificates as to employment on duty on the day of the poll, or of marked copies of the register of electors and lists of proxies.

Delivery of documents to Supervisor of Elections.

61. (1) The returning officer shall then forward to the Supervisor of Elections the following documents, that is to say—

(a) the packets of ballot papers in his possession;

(b) the ballot paper accounts and the statements of rejected ballot papers and of the result of the verification of the ballot papers accounts;

(c) the tendered votes lists, the lists of blind voters assisted by companions, the lists of votes marked by the presiding officer and the statements relating thereto, and the declarations made by the companions of blind voters;

(d) the packets of counterfoils and certificates as to employment on duty on the day of the poll;

(e) the packets containing marked copies of registers and of lists of proxies, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents, the date of the election to which they relate, and the name of the constituency for which the election was held.

(2) The returning officer shall forward the documents by delivering them personally to the Supervisor of Elections.

(3) The Supervisor of Elections shall on receiving the documents give a receipt to the person delivering them, and shall register them in the books of his office specifying the date and time of receipt.

(4) Any receipt to be given for the documents shall show the date and time of their receipt.

62. (1) An Order—

(a) for the inspection or production of any rejected ballot papers in the custody of the Supervisor of Elections; or

(b) for the opening of a sealed packet of counterfoils and certificates as to the employment on duty on the day of the poll or the inspection of any counted ballot papers in his custody may be made—

(i) by the House of Representatives;

(ii) if satisfied by evidence on oath that the Order is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers, or for the purpose of an election petition, by the High Court (whether sitting as an election court or not).

(2) An order for the opening of a sealed packet of counterfoils and certificates or for the inspection of any counted ballot papers in the said custody may be made by an election court.

(3) An Order under this rule may be made subject to such conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening as the House of Representatives or court making the order may think expedient:

Provided that in making and carrying into effect an order for the opening of a packet of counterfoils and certificates or for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken that the way in which the vote of any particular elector has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that the vote has been declared by a competent court to be invalid.

(4) Any power given under this rule to the High Court may be exercised by any judge of the Court otherwise than in open court.

(5) Where an order is made for the production by the Supervisor of Elections of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by him or his agent of the document ordered, in such manner as may be directed by that order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election; and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be by the endorsement.

Orders for production of

(6) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the elector whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election has affixed to his name in the register of electors the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(7) Save as by this rule provided, no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot papers in the possession of the Supervisor of Elections or to open any sealed packets of counterfoils and certificates.

Retention and public inspection of documents.

63. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall retain for a year all documents relating to an election forwarded to him in pursuance of these rules by a returning officer, and then, unless otherwise directed by order of the House of Representatives or the High Court, shall cause them to be destroyed.

(2) The said documents, except ballot papers, counterfoils and certificates as to employment on duty on the day of the poll, shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Supervisor of Elections with the consent of the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

(3) The Supervisor of Elections shall on request, supply copies of or extracts from the documents open to public inspection on payment of such fees and subject to such conditions as may be sanctioned by him.
