

CHAPTER 38

THE BAILIFF'S COMMISSION ACT

Arrangement of Sections

Section

1. Short title.
2. Commission of five per cent to be levied on arrears of rates and taxes except land tax.
3. Commission to be in addition to any charge, percentage or poundage.

BAILIFF'S COMMISSION

(25th November, 1907.)

10/1907.

1. This Act may be cited as the Bailiff's Commission Act. Short title.

2. Where by any Act any arrears of rates or taxes, save and except arrears of land tax payable under the Land Tax Act, are to be levied by the Provost-Marshal, and the Provost-Marshal shall issue his precept to any bailiff directing him to levy the same there shall be raised, collected by and paid to such bailiff as and for a remuneration for collecting such rates or taxes a further sum or commission amounting to five per centum on every sum by such precept directed to be levied, and the bailiff shall levy such percentage under every such precept as if the same were included therein.

Commission of five per cent to be levied on arrears of rates and taxes except land tax.

Commission to be in addition to any charge, percentage or poundage.

3. The commission mentioned in the last preceding section shall be in addition to any charge percentage or poundage prescribed or authorized by the Act imposing the rate or tax to be levied.
