(1) The Council of Architects shall establish the following committees for the efficient performance of its functions—

- (a) the Qualification and Assessment Committee;
- (b) the Complaints and Investigations Committee, and
- (c) the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) The Council of Architects may establish such other committees as it considers necessary.

8. Qualification and Assessment Committee

(1) The Qualification and Assessment Committee shall be comprised of—

- (a) the Chairperson of the Council of Architects;
- (b) two other members of the Council of Architects, appointed by the Chairperson of the Council of Architects; and
- (c) two other members of the Architects Association elected by the members to serve for a period of three years.

(2) The Qualification and Assessment Committee shall—

- (a) establish an efficient system of assessments;
- (b) examine applications for registration or licensing; and
- (c) advise the Council of Architects on the adequacy of the qualifications of an applicant for registration or licensing.

(3) The Chairperson of the Council of Architects shall chair the meetings of the Committee but if the Chairperson is absent from a meeting the other members of the Committee shall elect another member of the Committee to chair that meeting.

(4) Three members of the Qualification and Assessment Committee constitute a quorum.

(5) The Qualification and Assessment Committee shall meet at such times as are necessary to efficiently perform its functions.

9. Complaints and Investigations Committee

(1) Subject to section 34(3), the Complaints and Investigations Committee shall be comprised of—

- (a) two members of the Council of Architects appointed by the Chairperson of the Council of Architects; and
- (b) three other members of the Architects Association elected by the members of the Architects Association, to serve for a period of three years.

(2) The Complaints and Investigations Committee shall conduct preliminary investigations concerning—

- (a) the ability of an architect to discharge competently his professional responsibilities;
- (b) the professional misconduct of an architect; and
- (c) investigate other complaints respecting the conduct of an architect.

(3) The members of the Complaints and Investigations Committee shall elect a member to be the Chairperson for meetings of the Committee.

(4) Three members of the Complaints and Investigations Committee constitute a quorum.

(5) The Complaints and Investigations Committee shall meet at such times as are necessary to efficiently perform its functions.

(6) Complaints shall be received in writing and investigated by the Complaints and Investigations Committee in accordance with the Second Schedule.

10. Disciplinary Committee

(1) Subject to section 34(3), the Disciplinary Committee shall be comprised of five members of whom not less than three members shall be registered and practicing architects for a continuous period of at least ten years.

(2) Within the ten years that immediately follow the commencement of this Act, a person may be a member of the Disciplinary Committee if that person is qualified for registration under the Architects Registration Act, Chapter 34, and has practiced as an architect for at least ten years prior to the commencement of this Act.

(3) The Disciplinary Committee shall—

- (a) hear and determine complaints or allegations of professional misconduct or incompetence in respect of an architect following a preliminary investigation by the Complaints and Investigations Committee;
- (b) perform such other functions related to disciplinary matters assigned or referred to it by the Council of Architects; and
- (c) upon conclusion of a hearing, report in writing its findings, decision and reasons for the decision to the Council of Architects.

(4) For the purpose of conducting a hearing, the Disciplinary Committee may engage the services of an Attorney-at-Law of not less than 15 years standing or a former Judge to assist the Disciplinary Committee as necessary.

(5) The proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee shall be conducted in accordance with the Third Schedule.

11. Registrar

(1) The Public Service Commission shall appoint a Registrar for the purpose of—

- (a) keeping and maintaining a Register of Architects, including Registers of Specialist Architects; and
- (b) providing administrative support to the Council of Architects in the performance of its functions.

(2) The Registrar shall record in the Register of Architects the following information, in respect of every person who is or has been registered as an architect in Antigua and Barbuda—

- (a) the person's name and other personal information;
- (b) address and other contact details;
- (c) details of the person's eligibility for registration as an architect;
- (d) details of a person's qualification for registration as a specialist;
- (e) details of every licence to practice issued to an architect;
- (f) details of additional qualifications and specialisation in architecture or a related profession;
- (g) details of any complaint, investigation, disciplinary proceedings, order or other disciplinary action in respect of an architect; and
- (h) other particulars relevant to the person's registration and licensing.

(3) The Registrar shall make available—

- (a) for public inspection at all reasonable times a list of all architects on the Register of Architects and a list of the engineers who hold a licence to practice; and
- (b) upon written request, to persons who indicate a reasonable grounds for the information requested, other information recorded in the Register of Architects.

(4) The Registrar shall publish in the Gazette and one newspaper with nationwide circulation no later than the 30th day of April in every year, an alphabetical list of persons who on the 31st day of January in that year are registered and hold a licence to practice for that year.

(5) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a record of a complaint or investigation which does not result in disciplinary proceedings or the imposition of a disciplinary measure shall be struck from the Register of Architects no later than two years after the record was inserted on the Register of Architects.

(6) The Council of Architects shall, without request, provide to the Registrar in a timely manner, all the information that is relevant to the matters to be recorded in the Register of Architects under subsection (2).

12. Relationship with the State

(1) The Council of Architects does not represent the State and is required to act independently, impartially and in the interest of the public when performing its functions.

(2) The Minister or any other member of the government shall not give the Council of Architects, any of its Committees or the Registrar any direction with respect to—

- (a) the application of a person for registration or licensing; or
- (b) a complaint, investigation or disciplinary proceedings; or
- (c) the imposition of disciplinary measures; or
- (d) the performance of any of its functions.

(3) The Minister may, in the interest of the public, give the Council of Architects directions to provide information or reports and with respect general policies and standards for the practise of architecture.

PART III REGISTRATION

13. Requirement for Registration

(1) A person must be registered in order to obtain a licence to practise as an architect or use the title ‘architect’ in Antigua and Barbuda.

(2) A person shall not use or conduct business under a name, title or designation which includes the word ‘architect’ or which is likely to suggest that the person is registered as an architect or is entitled to be registered as an architect.

(3) Subsection (2) does not prevent a business from using or conducting business under a name, title or designation which includes the word ‘architect’ if the business—

- (a) is under the control and management of an architect; and
- (b) all architectural services and functions of the business are carried out by an architect.

(4) For the purpose of subsection (3), a ‘business’ includes a company, firm, partnership or other undertaking which is carried on for any gain, reward or profit.

14. Requirement for Registration for Engineering

(1) A person who is registered under the Engineers (Professions) Act, 2018 is not required to register under this Act to practice and to provide an architectural service if that person provides the services solely for the purpose of engineering.

(2) The Fifth Schedule of the Engineers (Professions) Act, 2018 shall apply in determining whether a service is solely for the purpose of engineering under subsection (1).

(3) A person who is registered as an architect under this Act, is not required to register under the Engineers (Professions) Act, 2018 to provide an engineering service if that service is provided in the circumstances and manner provided in the Fifth Schedule of the Engineers (Professions) Act, 2018.

15. Application for Registration

An application for registration as an architect must be submitted by an applicant to the Council of Architects in the prescribed form and accompanied by the following—

- (a) satisfactory proof of the identity;
- (b) sufficient evidence of eligibility for registration, including qualifications and experience;
- (c) proof of good character;
- (d) a certificate of good standing from the applicant's previous registering body, if applicable;
- (e) the prescribed application fee and registration fee;
- (f) sufficient contact information and proof of actual or proposed professional address; and
- (g) any other information which the Council of Architects requires in respect of the matters referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c).

16. Eligibility for Registration

(1) In this section—

“practical experience” means working under the supervision of a registered architect.

(2) A person is eligible to be registered as an architect if that person—

- (a) is qualified under subsection (3) for registration;
- (b) has successfully passed an appropriate examination which tests the knowledge and skill of that person in the field of architecture;
- (c) has at least three years practical experience in architecture, during which time such experience shall be documented in a log book;

- (d) is at least twenty-one years; and
- (e) is fit and proper for registration as set out under subsection (4).

(3) A person is qualified for registration as an architect if that person holds a professional degree (Bachelor of Architecture or equivalent), or a certificate, diploma or other form of qualification which is accepted as being equivalent to a professional degree and which is recognised by the Council of Architects, acting on the advice of the National Accreditation Board, as evidence of satisfactory qualification in architecture.

(4) In determining whether a person is fit and proper for registration as an architect, the Council of Architects shall consider whether the applicant—

- (a) can read, write, speak and understand the English language;
- (b) has been convicted in any country for—
 - (i) an offence that is an indictable offence in Antigua and Barbuda;
 - (ii) an offence involving fraud or physical violence; or
 - (iii) an offence related to the practice of architecture;
- (c) has ever had his registration as an architect or licence to practice architecture in any country suspended, revoked or cancelled and the reasons for the suspension, revocation or cancellation;
- (d) has committed an act of bankruptcy under section 4 of the Bankruptcy Act, Cap. 41;
- (e) is an executive officer of a corporation that is or has been the subject of receivership, winding-up or similar action or proceedings;
- (f) for any other reason, including mental reasons, lacks the ability to competently perform as an architect.

17. Continuation of Existing Registration

Notwithstanding section 16, a person who prior to the commencement of this Act was registered as an architect under Architects (Registration) Act, Cap 34 shall, upon application in the prescribed form, be registered under this Act if that person satisfies the Council of Architects that he is a fit and proper person for registration in accordance with section 16(4).

18. Grant of Registration

When the Council of Architects receives an application referred to in section 15 and is satisfied that an applicant is eligible to be registered as an architect, the Council of Architects shall, upon receipt of the prescribed fee, register the applicant and issue a certificate of registration to the applicant in the prescribed form.

19. Refusal to Register

When the Council of Architects receives an application referred to in section 15 or 17, and is not satisfied that the applicant is eligible to be registered or to have his registration continued under this Act, the Council of Architects shall give the applicant written notice of this fact to the applicant within sixty days of the date of receipt of the application by the Council.

20. Request for Additional Information

(1) If the Council of Architects requires further information from an applicant in order to determine whether to grant or refuse registration, the Council of Architects shall promptly request in writing the information required to make the determination.

(2) Upon receipt of the information requested, the Council of Architects shall make a determination respecting the applicant's qualification for registration and notify the applicant in writing of that determination within sixty days of the submission to the Council of Architects by the applicant of all the requested information.

(3) If the Council of Architects does not receive the information requested within sixty days from the date of the request, the Council of Architects shall immediately after the expiration of sixty days give written notice to the applicant of its refusal to register the applicant due to insufficient information.

21. Application for reconsideration of decision

(1) Where the Council of Architects refuses to register an applicant, the applicant may, within three months of receipt of the notice of refusal, apply to the Council of Architects in writing for reconsideration of its decision on the basis that the reason for the decision to refuse the application was erroneous.

(2) The Council of Architects may allow or deny the application for reconsideration.

(3) Where the Council of Architects allows the application for reconsideration, the Council may—

- (a) confirm its earlier decision to refuse the application and advise the applicant of his right to appeal to the Professional Review Tribunal; or

(b) grant the registration of the applicant as an architect.

(4) Where the Council of Architects denies the application for reconsideration, the Council shall inform the applicant within 14 days of its decision and of the applicant's right to appeal the decision to refuse his registration to the Professional Review Tribunal.

22. Duration of Registration

The registration of an architect shall continue until or unless registration is suspended or cancelled in accordance with this Act.

23. Temporary or Provisional Registration

(1) Notwithstanding sections 16 to 22, a person who is registered as an architect by a Board, Council or other professional body in a country listed in the Fourth Schedule and with which Antigua and Barbuda or the Council of Architects has entered into a mutual recognition agreement may, upon payment of the prescribed fee, apply to the Council of Architects for temporary or provisional registration.

(2) Temporary or provisional registration is for such temporary duration and subject to such condition as provided for in the relevant mutual recognition agreement.

24. Registration of Specialist

(1) The Council of Architects recognizes each of the specialist areas of architecture, set out in the first column of the Fifth Schedule.

(2) An architect who possesses the additional qualifications, training and experience set out in the second column of Fifth Schedule in respect of a corresponding specialty set out in the first column may apply in the prescribed form, to be registered as a specialist in the relevant area of architecture.

(3) An architect may be registered as a specialist in the Register of Specialist Architects if that person satisfies the Council of Architects that he or she has obtained the relevant qualification, training and experience from an institution which is recognised by the Council of Architects acting on the advice of the National Accreditation Board, as evidence of satisfactory qualification in architecture.

(4) A person who is registered as an architect prior to the commencement of this Act is deemed to be certified in the specialized areas of architecture provided that such person notifies the Registrar within 6 months of this Act coming into effect that he or she has practiced in the specialist area or areas while a registered architect in Antigua and Barbuda.

PART IV
PRACTISE OF ARCHITECTURE

25. Issue of Licence to Practise

(1) An architect who is duly registered under this Act may apply in the prescribed form to the Council of Architects for a licence to practice.

(2) The Council of Architects shall issue the licence to practice to the applicant once satisfied that the applicant—

- (a) is registered on the Register of Architects;
- (b) has paid the prescribed fee for the licence to practice; and
- (c) has obtained professional liability insurance in accordance with section 29 for the period in respect of which the licence is to be issued.

26. Issue of Temporary and Provisional Licence

(1) A person who has been granted temporary or provisional registration is entitled to obtain, upon payment of the prescribed temporary and provisional licence fee, a licence to practice for the duration of the registration.

(2) A temporary or provisional licence shall be subject to such limitations and conditions as are appropriate under the relevant mutual recognition agreement.

27. Duration of Licence

A licence to practice shall continue in force until the 31st day of December of the year in which it is issued unless the licence—

- (a) has been suspended or cancelled in accordance with this Act; or
- (b) is expressed to be for a specified duration.

28. Form of Licence

A licence to practice shall be in the prescribed form.

29. Professional Liability Insurance

(1) An architect shall maintain full professional liability insurance at all times during which the architect holds a licence to practise.

- (a) sickness or industrial accidents affecting employees;
- (b) loss or damage to the architect's equipment employed in the provision of the services;
- (c) civil liability for accidents caused to third parties arising out of the provision of the services; and
- (d) accidental death or permanent disability resulting from bodily injury incurred in connection with the provision of the services.

(3) The Council of Architects may establish, administer, maintain and operate a professional insurance liability scheme for licensed architects for the purpose of subsection (1) and in respect of such scheme may—

- (a) determine classes of membership for insurance;
- (b) determine the insurance fee or contribution for members in each class;
- (c) determine the deductibles that apply in certain circumstance;
- (d) provide for payment of insurance fees by instalment or in advance; and
- (e) provide for specific types or values of transaction which require additional insurance fees or contributions to be paid.

30. Proof of Insurance

The Council of Architects may at any time require any architect who holds a licence to practise to provide proof of—

- (a) the indemnity insurance policy referred to in section 29;
- (b) the current status of the insurance policy including, proof of regular and up to date payment of premiums in respect of the insurance policy.

31. Practice of architecture by persons other than registered architects

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Act, nothing shall prevent—

- (a) a person who is not an architect from engaging in those aspects of the practice of architecture that includes drafting or supervising any architectural works as owner or contractor; or
- (b) an Architectural Technologist or an Architectural Technician from—
 - (i) performing architectural works involved in minor alterations;
 - (ii) the provision of architectural services for residential dwelling other than where multiple production of the residential building is involved or where the residential dwelling concerned is to be no more than two storeys; or
 - (iii) the provision of architectural services for premises intended for commercial use where the total size of the commercial building does not exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred square feet and is to be no more than two storeys.

(2) In this section—

“Architectural Technologist” refers to a person who—

- (a) holds a degree or diploma or higher certificate in Construction Technology or Architectural Technology awarded by a Polytechnic Institution or College or other place of learning at which the syllabus for the particular course has been approved by the National Accreditation Board; and
- (b) has a minimum of four years work experience; or
- (c) has been engaged in the business of diversified architectural practice for a minimum of eight years under the supervision of a registered architect who has notified and provided evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of this training.

“Architectural Technician” refers to a person who—

- (a) holds an Architectural Technician Certificate or Diploma awarded by a Polytechnic Institution or College or other place of learning at which the syllabus for the particular course has been approved by the National Accreditation Board; and
- (b) has a minimum of two years work experience; or

- (c) has been engaged in the business of diversified architectural practice for a minimum of five years under the supervision of a registered architect who has notified and provided evidence to the satisfaction of the Board of this training.

PART V COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS

32. Complaints

A representation, complaint or allegation in respect of any matter relating to the professional conduct or competence of an architect may be made in writing by any person to the Council of Architects.

33. Power of Council of Architects to Investigate

(1) The Council of Architects has the power to investigate any matter, however arising, concerning the practice of architecture or the conduct of an architect where it is believed that such an investigation is warranted in the public interest or in the interest of maintaining the standards and integrity of the profession.

(2) Council of Architects, on its own motion and with or without conducting a preliminary investigation, may conduct—

- (a) a formal hearing into the ability of an architect to practise architecture; or
- (b) an informal or formal hearing into the professional conduct of an architect.

(3) The Council of Architects shall investigate—

- (a) any representation, allegation or complaint made by an architect respecting the conduct or competence of another architect; or
- (b) any allegation or complaint made by a person other than an architect, respecting the matter of professional misconduct, unless the Council of Architects has determined that allegation is frivolous or vexatious.

(4) The Architects Council may investigate any allegation or complaint made by any person respecting any matter relating to the provision of engineering services by an architect.

34. Form and Conduct of Investigation

(1) An investigation by the Council of Architects may be in the form of a preliminary investigation, an informal hearing, or a formal hearing.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a preliminary investigation of the Council of Architects shall be conducted by the Complaints and Investigations Committee and an informal or a formal hearing of the Council of Architects shall be conducted by the Disciplinary Committee.

(3) If the Council of Architects determines, with respect to an investigation, that special skill or expertise is required, the Council of Architects may appoint an appropriate person who possesses the requisite skills or expertise to work with the Complaints and Investigations Committee for the whole or part of the investigation.

35. Referral to Committees for Investigation

(1) When the Council of Architects determines, on its own motion or on receipt of a representation, allegation or complaint, that an investigation into the professional conduct, capability or competence of an architect should be conducted, the Council of Architects shall, in accordance with section 34, refer the matter to—

- (a) the Complaints and Investigations Committee; or
- (b) the Disciplinary Committee.

(2) The Council shall give prompt notice of the referral, in writing, to the architect who shall be the subject of the investigation.

36. Report on Investigation

Within thirty days following the conclusion of an investigation, the Committee responsible for the conduct of an investigation under this Part shall submit to the Council of Architects a written report that includes the findings of the Committee, the decisions, reasons for the decisions and the recommendations or directions of the Committee in respect of the matter.

37. Determination of Council

(1) Subject to subsection (2), upon the receipt of a report referred to in section 36, the Council of Architects shall, promptly, make a determination in respect of the matter, taking into account the report submitted and shall take such action as it considers fair and appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) The Council of Architects where it considers it appropriate to do so, shall invite the architect to appear before it or to provide written submissions in respect of the matter as the Council of Architects considers necessary, before making a determination.

(3) If, in the case of a preliminary investigation, the Council of Architects accepts the recommendation of the Complaints and Investigations Committee that a matter be referred to the Disciplinary Committee, the Council of Architects shall inform the architect and the complainant, if any, of—

- (a) the conclusion of the preliminary investigation; and
- (b) the decision and reasons for the decision.

(4) In respect of any other investigation, the Council of Architects shall give written notice to the architect who is the subject of the investigation, of decision arising out of the investigation and whether –

- (a) no further action is to be taken by the Council of Architects respecting the matter; or
- (b) the matter is to be referred to the Disciplinary Committee for the conduct of a formal or informal hearing; and
- (c) disciplinary measures will be taken by the Council of Architects consequent upon the decision, within 28 days of receiving the report referred to in section 36 or an appearance or submission referred to in subsection (2).

(5) If the report of an investigation by the Disciplinary Committee indicates that it is likely that the conduct or activity of an architect constitutes a criminal offence, the Council of Architects shall submit a copy of the report to the Director of Public Prosecutions.

PART VI DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

38. Measures for Criminal Conviction

(1) If an architect is convicted of a criminal offence—

- (a) in Antigua and Barbuda that is punishable on indictment; or
- (b) in another country that is comparable to an offence punishable on indictment in Antigua and Barbuda, the Council of Architects may suspend or cancel the registration of the architect.

(2) The Council of Architects may suspend registration for such period as it considers appropriate after considering the nature of the offence and whether the registration of the architect was previously suspended as a consequence of a criminal conviction.

(3) If the Council of Architects cancels the registration of an architect, the name and record of the architect shall be struck off the Register of Architects and the cancellation of registration and reasons therefor shall be recorded.

39. Measures for Professional Misconduct

If, following an investigation of the Disciplinary Committee, the Council of Architects determines that an architect has engaged in a practice or activity that amounts to professional misconduct, the Council may, in writing—

- (a) censure the architect;
- (b) suspend the registration of the architect—
 - (i) for a specified period as the Council of Architects considers appropriate; or
 - (ii) until the occurrence of some specified future event; or
- (c) cancel the registration of the architect, remove his name from the register and revoke his certificate.

40. Measures for Incompetence

If an architect is found to be incompetent, incapacitated or lacking ability the Council of Architects shall, where section 39 does not apply to the conduct of the architect –

- (a) suspend his registration for such a period as the Council of Architects considers appropriate;
- (b) cancel his registration and remove his name from the Register of Architects; or
- (c) impose an appropriate pre-condition for the renewal of the registration.

41. Measures for Failure to Insure

The Council of Architects may cancel or suspend an architect's licence to practise if the architect fails to take out and maintain sufficient professional liability insurance.

42. Striking off Incorrect or Fraudulent Entry

The Council of Architects shall cause to be struck from the Register of Architects any entry which has been incorrectly or fraudulently made.

43. Additional Measures

Notwithstanding sections 38 to 42, the Council of Architects may take further action as it considers appropriate, in the interest of maintaining the standards and integrity of the profession.

44. Commencement of Measure

A disciplinary measure imposed by the Council of Architects under this Part has effect immediately upon a written notice being given to the architect or at such time as the Council of Architects indicates in writing.

PART VII REVIEW AND APPEAL

45. Professional Regulation Review Tribunal

(1) There is established a tribunal to be known as the Professional Regulation Review Tribunal.

(2) The members of the Professional Regulation Review Tribunal shall be appointed by the Minister and otherwise constituted in accordance with the Sixth Schedule.

(3) The function of the Professional Regulation Review Tribunal is to review decisions of the Council of Architects upon the application of a person who alleges that he has been aggrieved by a particular decision.

46. Application for Review

(1) A person may apply in writing to the Tribunal for a review of a decision of the Council of Architects within thirty days of being informed of that decision.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person may apply in writing to the Tribunal to review any decision of the Council of Architects by which that person is aggrieved including a decision to—

- (a) refuse an application of that person to register an architect;
- (b) suspend or cancel that person's registration;
- (c) suspend or cancel a licence issued to that person to practise; or
- (d) impose a disciplinary measure, including censure.

(3) A review under this section shall not be conducted in respect of a decision to refuse an application for registration or a licence to practise if the refusal is as a result of the applicant's failure to provide satisfactory evidence to the Council of Architects to show that he is qualified or is a fit and proper person for registration or for the issue of a licence.

47. Suspension of Decision Pending Review

(1) If an applicant under section 46 for the review of a decision requests, in writing, a suspension of the decision, the Council of Architects may suspend the enforcement of the decision to be reviewed pending the determination of the review by the Tribunal.

(2) In determining whether to grant the request under subsection (1), the Council of Architects shall consider the extent to which injury to any person is likely pending review and the potential for restitution in the event of injury.

48. Decisions of the Tribunal

(1) The Tribunal, after conducting the review of a decision by the Council of Architects to refuse to register a person as an architect or issue a licence to practice, may—

- (a) direct the Council of Architects to—
 - (i) cause the registration or licensing to be effected;
 - (ii) reconsider the application for registration or licensing; or
 - (iii) do such thing as is appropriate; or
- (b) declare that the decision of the Council of Architects is reasonable or justifiable.

(2) The Tribunal, after conducting the review of a decision by the Council of Architects to impose disciplinary measure, may do one or more of the following—

- (a) confirm the decision of the Council of Architects;
- (b) set aside the decision of the Council of Architects;
- (c) direct that the relevant disciplinary measure be re-conducted;
- (d) set aside the penalty imposed and substitute another penalty;
- (e) order the applicant for the review to pay to the Council of Architects the costs of the review; or
- (f) direct the Council of Architects to take such action as it deems fit.

49. Appeal

An appeal against any decision made by the Tribunal, other than a decision with respect to the entitlement of a person to be registered, shall lie to a Judge in Chambers and every such appeal shall be made within such time and in such form and shall be heard in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of Court.

PART VIII OFFENCES

50. False or Fraudulent Representations

A person commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50,000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or to both such fine and imprisonment if that person—

- (a) makes or causes to be made, wilfully procures or attempts to procure any false or fraudulent representation or declaration, whether oral or written, for the purpose of obtaining registration or licensing under this Act for himself or another person; or
- (b) fraudulently represents himself as being a specialist in architecture.

51. Wrongful Use of Title

A person who, while not being an architect—

- (a) uses any name, title or other description which suggests, implies or is calculated to imply that the person is a registered architect or that he is recognised under any law of Antigua and Barbuda or another country as a person authorized and qualified to practise as an architect;
- (b) assumes or uses any title or prefix which suggests that the person is an architect;
- (c) advertises or holds himself out as a person authorised or qualified to practise as an architect, commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50,000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

52. Offence to Practice without Licence

(1) A person shall not practice as an architect in Antigua and Barbuda unless he holds a licence to practice which has been issued by the Council of Architects under section 6.

(2) A person who practices architecture without a licence to practise issued under this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50,000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

53. Fraudulently holding out oneself to be Holder of Licence

A person who fraudulently holds himself out to be the holder of a valid license to practice issued under this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine of $50,000 or to imprisonment for 2 years or to both such fine and imprisonment.

54. No Restriction on pro bono Assistance

Nothing in this Act shall prevent any suitably qualified person from providing architectural advice or other assistance without hire, gain or reward.

PART IX
MISCELLANEOUS

55. Recovery of Fees and Costs

(1) A registered architect who holds a licence to practise is entitled to recover in any court with full costs of suit, reasonable charges for professional services.

(2) A person claiming to be, or describing himself as or acting in the capacity of an architect is not entitled to recover fees or charges for architectural services unless he is registered and is the holder of a licence to practise issued under this Act.

56. Limitation of Actions

A person duly registered under this Act or the holder of a licence issued under this Act shall not be liable in any action for professional misconduct, negligence or mal-practice in respect of professional services requested or rendered unless such action is commenced within three years from the last day on which such architectural services were provided.

57. Notification of Action or Trial

(1) If a civil action has been brought against an architect in respect of the provision of architectural services the architect shall immediately notify the Council of Architects.

(2) Upon the conclusion of the civil action, the architect shall notify the Council of Architects of—

- (a) the matter which has been concluded by the court or by way of settlement; and
- (b) the decision and order of the Court or the terms of the settlement.

(3) If an architect has been committed for trial, convicted or discharged in respect of an indictable offence, the architect shall immediately notify the Council of Architects of the committal, conviction or discharge, as the case may be.

58. Certificate to be signed by Registered Architect

Upon commencement of this Act, no certificate or other document which is required by any written law to be signed by an architect shall be valid unless the person signing it is registered under this Act.

59. Certificate by Chairperson and Registrar prima facie Evidence

In all cases where proof of registration or licensing under this Act is required to be made, the production of a certificate under the hand of both the Chairperson of the Council of Architects and the Registrar showing that the person therein named is duly registered or is a holder of a licence to practise, shall be sufficient evidence in a court or otherwise of the registration or licensing of that person.

60. Confidentiality

(1) Every member of the Council of Architects or a committee of the Council of Architects, the Registrar or any person acting under the authority of any of them shall preserve secrecy with respect to all matters that come to their knowledge in the course of performing duties, employment, inquiry or investigation under this Act and shall not communicate such matters to any other person except—

- (a) as required for the administration of this Act;
- (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates.

(2) A person referred to in subsection (1) shall be required to give testimony in any civil suit or proceedings with regard to information obtained by him in the course of his duties, employment, inquiry or investigation except—

- (a) in proceedings concerning an offence under or other contravention of this Act;
- (b) upon the order of a Judge of the High Court in a matter before the High Court.

61. Exemption from Liability

Nothing done by any member of the Council of Architects or a Committee of the Council of Architects, the Registrar or any person acting under the authority of any of them where such thing was done bona fide for the purpose of giving effect to this Act shall subject that person, in a personal capacity, to any action, liability, claim or demand.

62. Fees and other funds of the Council

(1) Subject to subsection (2), all fees and monies received by the Council of Architects in accordance with this Act, shall be retained by the Council and managed and used by the Council for the performance of its functions.

(2) Money received as premiums for or in respect of a professional liability insurance scheme administered and maintained pursuant to section 29(3) shall not be co-mingled with other funds of the Council.

63. Rules and Regulations

(1) The Minister, on the advice of Council of Architects, may make Regulations for carrying this Act into effect.

(2) The Council of Architects may make rules in respect of the professional conduct of architects and fitness of an individual to practice as an architect.

(3) The Minister may, on the advice of the Council of Architects, amend the Schedules to this Act.

64. Repeals and Savings

(1) The Architects (Registration) Act, Cap. 34 is hereby repealed.

(2) Any regulations made under the Architects (Registration) Act, Cap. 34 and in force before the commencement of this Act shall continue in force under this Act until new regulations have been made.

8. A member of the Council who is absent from three consecutive meetings without the permission of the Chairperson shall lose his right to vote in the next three meetings following.

9. A vacancy in the Council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment and the validity of the proceedings of the Council of Architects shall not be affected by a vacancy in the Council or by a defect in the appointment of a member.

10. Minutes of the meetings of the Council of Architects shall be recorded by a Secretary to be appointed for the purpose and copies circulated to the members of the Council two weeks following every meeting.

SECOND SCHEDULE

[Section 9 (6)]

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE COMPLAINTS AND INVESTIGATIONS COMMITTEE

- 1. Whenever a complaint is received by the Council of Architects, the complaint shall be promptly referred to the Complaints and Investigations Committee.
- 2. Whenever a matter is referred to or otherwise received by the Complaints and Investigations Committee, the Committee shall in writing, promptly notify the architect who is the subject of the complaint to be investigated.
- 3. The notice referred to in paragraph 2 shall—
 - (a)* identify the matter that is to be investigated;
 - (b)* stipulate the right of the architect to submit in writing to the Complaints and Investigations Committee, any explanation or representation he wishes to make as well as any document or other information, concerning the matter that he wishes to submit to the Committee;
 - (c)* indicate that any submission must be made by a date not later than 28 days from the date of the notice or such other time as stipulated by the Committee.
- 4. The Complaints and Investigations Committee shall examine all documents and other information relating to the complaint that are submitted to it and shall make every reasonable effort to verify the information and ascertain all the facts that are relevant to a determination of the matter.
- 5. The Complaints and Investigations Committee may hear evidence from any person, whether or not the person is a direct party concerned in the matter.
- 6. Following a consideration of the information submitted to it, the Complaints and Investigations Committee may solicit clarifications, in writing, with respect to any statement, representation or other information submitted to the Committee.
- 7. When the Complaints and Investigation Committee is conducting an investigation other than a preliminary investigation—
 - (a)* the Committee shall invite both parties concerned in the matter to appear before the committee to make representations or to answer questions regarding the matter;

- (b) the Committee may at the request of a party, permit the party to appear before the Committee.

8. When a party appears before the Committee pursuant to paragraph 7(b), the Committee shall give to the other party—

- (a) notice regarding the appearance;
- (b) a copy, extract or representation of any statement or representation made to the Committee at that appearance; and
- (c) the opportunity to appear before the Committee in respect of any statement or representation made at that appearance.

9. An architect who appears before the Complaints and Investigations Committee shall have the right to be represented by an attorney-at-Law.

10. The Complaints and Investigations Committee shall submit a report to the Council of Architects containing its findings and recommendations.

11. Where the Complaints and Investigation Committee has conducted a preliminary investigation, its report to the Council of Architects may recommend that—

- (a) no further investigation be conducted; or
- (b) the matter be referred to the Disciplinary Committee; or
- (c) such other steps be taken as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

THIRD SCHEDULE

[Section 10 (5)]

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE

1. The Council of Architects shall serve on an architect against whom disciplinary proceedings are to be instituted a notice which shall—

- (a) specify, in the form of a charge, the matters into which the inquiry is to be held; and
- (b) state the time and place at which the enquiry is proposed to be held

2. Except with the consent of the architect, an inquiry shall not be fixed for a date earlier than 30 days after the date on which the notice is served.
3. The notice shall be served personally or by pre-paid registered post on the architect at the professional address shown on the Register of Architects.
4. In any case where there is a complainant, a copy of the notice shall also be sent to the complainant.
5. If, after a complaint has been referred to the Disciplinary Committee for investigation it appears to the Committee that the disciplinary proceeding should not be held, the Council shall notify the complainant, if any, and the architect of that fact.
6. An architect shall be entitled to receive copies of, or to be allowed access to, any documentary evidence relied on for the purpose of the disciplinary proceeding.
7. The architect shall have the right to be represented by an attorney-at-law in any disciplinary proceedings instituted against him.
8. If an architect does not appear at the date fixed for the hearing of the case, the Disciplinary Committee may, if it is satisfied that a notice of enquiry has been served on the architect, proceed with the enquiry in his absence and the absence of his attorney.
9. Where witnesses are examined by the Disciplinary Committee, the architect shall be given an opportunity to attend and put questions to the witnesses on his own behalf; and no documentary evidence shall be used against him unless he has previously been supplied with copies thereof or given access thereto.
10. The architect shall be permitted to give evidence, call witnesses and make submissions orally or in writing on his own behalf.
11. The Disciplinary Committee may call additional witnesses and may adjourn the proceedings to another convenient time or place.
12. The testimony of witnesses shall be taken under oath, which the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee is authorised to administer, and there shall be a right to examine, cross-examine and re-examine witnesses.
13. On the application of—
 - (a) any party to the proceedings;
 - (b) the Chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee; or
 - (c) the counsel for the Disciplinary Committee, the Registrar may issue subpoenas for the purposes of procuring the attendance of witnesses, the giving of testimony and the production of documents before the Disciplinary Committee.

14. The rules of evidence in the proceedings and penalties in the case of disobedience to any subpoena, shall be the same as in civil cases in the Supreme Court.

15. The Disciplinary Committee shall have the proceedings and the evidence—

- (a) written, transcribed and certified by a court transcriber; or
- (b) recorded, and transcribed and certified by a court transcriber.

16. It is the duty of the architect whose conduct or fitness to practise is being inquired into, to appear at the inquiry, but in event of non-attendance by that architect, the Disciplinary Committee, upon proof by an affidavit of the service of notice, may proceed with the inquiry, and without further notice to the architect make a report of its findings and take such other action as it is authorised to take under this Act.

17. If, having heard the evidence in support of the charges the Disciplinary Committee is of the opinion that the evidence is insufficient, it may dismiss the charges without calling upon the architect for his defence.

18. On the conclusion of the enquiry, the Disciplinary Committee shall submit a report of its findings, decision, reasons for the decision and recommendations to the Council of Architects.
