36. Seizure and notice of seizure

(1) In the course of an inspection carried out under this Act, if an inspector believes on reasonable grounds that a provision of this Act has been or is being contravened, or any plant, plant product or regulated article presents a risk of the introduction or spread of a pest, the inspector may seize the plant, plant product or regulated article—

(a) by means of or in relation to which he believes on reasonable grounds that the contravention has been or is being committed;

(b) that he believes on reasonable grounds will afford evidence in respect of the contravention of the provision of this Act.

(2) An inspector who seizes and detains a plant, plant product or regulated article under this Act—

(a) shall immediately issue to the owner of the plant, plant product or regulated article a detention certificate in the prescribed form and shall, as soon as practicable, advise the owner that part or all of the plant, plant product or regulated article may be subject within a specified time to any action specified in section 37; or may forego advising the owner of the plant, plant product or regulated article of the reason for the seizure if, in the opinion of the inspector, it is urgently required to destroy the plant, plant product or regulated article or the giving of the reason for the seizure is impractical.

37. Storage or removal of affected items

Where an inspector has seized and detained a plant, plant product or regulated article under this Act—

(a) the inspector, or

(b) any other person designated by the NPPO, may—

(2) An inspector who confiscates a plant, plant product or regulated article or a quarantine pest or regulated non quarantine pest—

(a) shall, as soon as is practicable, advise the owner of the reason for its confiscation and issue a confiscation certificate; or

(b) may forego advising the owner of the plant, plant product or regulated article or pest of the reason for the confiscation if the giving of the reason for the confiscation is impractical.
(6) A notice served under subsection (2) must—

(a) specify the offence alleged;

(b) give such particulars of the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the allegation; and

(c) state—

(i) the period during which, by virtue of subsection (3), proceedings will not be instituted against any person for the offence; and

(ii) the amount of the fixed penalty.

(7) In any proceedings for an offence to which this section applies, reference shall not be made after the conviction of the accused to the giving of any notice under this section or to the payment or non-payment of a fixed penalty hereunder unless, in the course of the proceedings or in some document which is before the Court in connection with the proceedings, reference has been made by or on behalf of the accused to the giving of such notice or, as the case may be, to such payment or non-payment.

(8) In this section “proceedings” means any criminal proceedings in respect of the act or omission constituting the offence specified in the notice served under subsection (2), and “convicted” shall be construed in like manner.

(2) Where an appeal has been filed the Minister shall take reasonable steps to stay the destruction, disposal or treatment of the articles pending a determination of the appeal by the committee appointed, except where in the opinion of the Minister any delay would create a significant risk or harm to plant resources in Antigua and Barbuda.

(3) Subject to sections 19(7) and 29(5), a determination by the committee under sub-section (4) shall not prejudice the right of any aggrieved party to seek recourse in the courts.

(4) The committee, which shall hear and determine any matter within three working days, shall comprise three persons appointed by the Board and shall regulate its own procedure.
