I Assent,

James B. Carlisle,
Governor-General.

13th October, 2006.

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA

No. 14 of 2006

AN ACT to establish a National Security Council to advise the Government with respect to national security, to coordinate national security among various government agencies and to enable the law enforcement and security forces and agencies of the Government to cooperate more effectively in matters involving national security.

*[Publish in the Official Gazette Vol. XXVI No.61
date 26th October, 2006.]*

ENACTED by the Parliament of Antigua and Barbuda as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as the National Security Council Act, 2006. Short title.

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.

“Council” means the National Security Council established under section 3;

“Minister” means the Prime Minister; and

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA 2 The National Security Council Act, 2006. No. 14 of 2006.

“national security” means the protection of the public, classes of persons and individuals in Antigua and Barbuda against criminal activity, insurrection or invasion.

Establishment. 3. (1) There is established a council to be known as the National Security Council.

(2) The Minister shall preside over meetings of the Council and in his absence he shall designate a member of the Council who is a minister to preside in his place.

Composition. 4. (1) The Council shall be comprised of—

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) the Attorney General;
- (c) the National Security Adviser;
- (d) the Chief of Defence Staff;
- (e) the Commissioner of Police;
- (f) the Director of the Office of National Drug and Money Laundering Control Policy; and
- (g) such other ministers as the Prime Minister may appoint.

(2) The members of the Council referred to in subsection (1)(b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) shall be members only for so long as they hold the offices specified.

(3) There shall be a secretary of the Council, who shall be a principal assistant secretary or a permanent secretary in the office of the minister with responsibility for national security.

(4) The Minister may, in consultation with the Council, invite a person who is not a member to attend a meeting of the Council.

Functions of the Council

Functions of the Council. 5. The Council shall—

- (a) be the Government’s principal forum for considering national security matters;

- (b) coordinate policies and activities of the departments and agencies of the Government relating to national security; and
- (c) perform any functions ascribed to it under any enactment.

6. (1) The Council shall—Powers and duties of the Council.

- (a) consider and approve policies to be complied with by departments and agencies of Government relating to national security, and to make recommendations to the Minister in connection therewith;
- (b) make such recommendations, and such other reports to the Minister as it deems appropriate or as the Minister may require;
- (c) establish priorities among the activities that address national security interests and requirements;
- (d) ensure the collection and collation of information and intelligence relating to the national security of Antigua and Barbuda and the integration of that information and intelligence into the domestic, foreign and security policies of the Government; and
