THE EXPLOSIVES ORDER, MADE UNDER SECTION 3 OF THE EXPLOSIVES ACT.

1. SHORT TITLE. This Order may be cited as the Explosives Order.

2. IMPORTATION OF EXPLOSIVES. No person, other than a person licensed to deal in or sell explosives, shall import into Antigua and Barbuda any explosive, unless he first obtains a licence in that behalf from the Comptroller of Customs according to the Form A in the Schedule; and the Comptroller of Customs may, in his absolute discretion, refuse the same or grant the same subject to such terms and conditions as he may think fit.

3. EXPLOSIVES RECEIPT BOOK. Every person licensed to deal in or sell explosives shall keep on his licensed premises an Explosives Receipt Book according to the Form B in the Schedule, and he shall immediately after receipt of any explosive at his licensed premises, make or cause to be made entry therein of the date of such receipt, the nature and quantity of each kind of explosive received, and the name and address of the person or persons from whom received, and, where he himself has imported the explosive, the name of the ship or aircraft in which and the address of the person from whom such explosive was imported, and whether on purchase, loan or otherwise.

4. EXPLOSIVES DELIVERY BOOK. Every person licensed to deal in or to sell explosives shall keep on his licensed premises an Explosives Delivery Book, according to the Form C in the Schedule, and shall immediately after delivery of any explosive from his licensed premises make or cause to be made entry therein of the date of such delivery, the nature and quantity of the explosive delivered, the name and address of the person to whom the same was delivered, and the date and number of the licence to purchase produced by such person, or the circumstances exempting him from producing such licence, and whether on sale, loan, or otherwise.
