
CHAPTER 246A

THE LEGAL TENDER
(COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE—CURRENCY NOTES) ORDER

Arrangement of Sections
Section

1. Citation.
 2. Designation of Commemorative Currency Notes.
 3. Description of Commemorative Currency Notes.
- SCHEDULE.

S.I. 1/1987.

THE LEGAL TENDER ACT

THE LEGAL TENDER (COMMEMORATIVE ISSUE—CURRENCY NOTES) ORDER, MADE UNDER SECTION 4 OF THE LEGAL TENDER ACT.

1. CITATION. This Order may be cited as the Legal Tender (Commemorative Issue—Currency Notes) Order, 1987.

2. DESIGNATION OF COMMEMORATIVE CURRENCY NOTES. The Commemorative currency notes in the denominations of fifty, seventy-five and one hundred East Caribbean dollars, depicting the Flora and Fauna of Antigua and Barbuda or Sail Ships or other commemorative designs, are designated as legal tender in Antigua and Barbuda. The period of issue is designated from the 31st day of December, 1986 and is strictly limited to a striking mintage of 20,000 series.

3. DESCRIPTION OF COMMEMORATIVE CURRENCY NOTES. The description of the commemorative currency notes designated by this Order is specified in the Schedule.

SCHEDULE

The issue of commemorative currency notes shall be limited to 20,000 series and are designated as a limited charter edition. Each series shall consist of no more than 38 commemorative currency notes and of designs approved by the Minister. Each commemorative currency note shall be double-faced in 22 – 24 karat white-and-yellow gold and/or platinum and/or 22 – 24 karat gold with silver, and measure approximately 3 x 6 inches. Each commemorative currency note shall bear a free value denomination of $50 E.C., $75 E.C., and $100 E.C. dollars.

NOTICE: The commemorative 22 – 24 karat gold Flora Fauna currency notes issued under Order No. 30 of 1982 shall continue to be marketed and fulfilled beyond 31st October, 1986 but no later the 12th May, 1988 when the marketing and fulfilment of outstanding currency note collections will be completed and terminated.

The commemorative gold and silver coins issued under Order 28, 29 of 1982 shall continue to be marked and fulfilled beyond 31st October, 1986 but no later than 30th September, 1987.

Made this 15th day of January, 1987.
