THE MAGISTRATE'S CODE OF PROCEDURE RULES, 1956,
DATED DECEMBER 10, 1955, MADE UNDER SECTION 250
OF THE MAGISTRATE'S CODE OF PROCEDURE ACT.

1. SHORT TITLE. These Rules may be cited as the Magistrate's Code of Procedure Rules.

2. INTERPRETATION. In these Rules—

“Act” means the Magistrate's Code of Procedure Act;

“Court” means a Magistrate's Court;

“Schedule” means the Schedule to these Rules.

3. REGISTER. (1) The register to be kept by the Magistrate or his clerk in pursuance of section 249 of the Act shall contain such particulars as appear by the form numbered 82 in the Schedule.

(2) A separate register relating to the proceedings of a juvenile court shall be kept and shall contain such particulars as appear in the form numbered 83 in the Schedule.

(3) When a magistrate convicts a person of an offence he shall show clearly by the entries in the register relating to the case of what offence he convicts the defendant; and the date of such offence shall be stated in the register.

(4) When further time is allowed for payment of a fine, an entry of the further time allowed shall be made either in the column of the register headed “Time allowed for payment and instalments”, or in a book kept for recording fines for the payment of which time has been allowed, and if the Magistrate directs payment to be made by instalments, an entry should be made as above to that effect. Such entries shall be signed and dated by the Magistrate whenever he allows further time or directs payment by instalments.

4. PLEA OF GUILTY. (1) In every case in which a person appears before the Court to answer a charge, information or complaint which the Magistrate has power to deal with summarily, the Magistrate, before he convicts such person, shall ask if he pleads guilty or admits the truth of the charge, information or complaint; and if he does so an entry of the fact shall be made in the register.

(2) Where a Magistrate tries any person summarily in any case in which he may be tried summarily only with his consent or in which he has a right to claim trial by a jury he shall cause to be entered in the register his election to be tried summarily.

5. RECORDING DISMISSALS UNDER PROBATION OF OFFENDERS ACT. When a Magistrate dismisses an information or charge or binds over an offender under the Probation of Offenders Act, the minute of adjudication entered in the register shall be "Dismissed [Bound over] P.O. Act".

6. RESTRICTION ON PART-PAYMENT. When a term of imprisonment is imposed by a Magistrate in respect of the non-payment of any sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction or order of a Magistrate, no sum tendered in part-payment of that sum need be accepted unless it is the amount required to secure one day's reduction of the sentence or some multiple thereof; and when a warrant of distress or commitment has been issued, no part payment shall be accepted until the fee, if any, payable for such warrant has been discharged.

7. NOTING PAYMENTS ON COMMITMENT. When payment is made to any person having custody of the defendant, the person receiving it shall forthwith note the receipt thereof on the commitment.

8. PAYMENT ON FIRST DAY'S IMPRISONMENT. Where a term of imprisonment is imposed by a Magistrate in respect of the non-payment of any sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction or order of a Magistrate's court, a person committed to prison or to detention under section 111 of the Act in default of payment shall not be entitled to be discharged upon the first day of his imprisonment or detention except upon payment in full of the sum in respect of which the committal took place.

9. ALLOCATION OF PART-PAYMENTS. In any case where under section 113 of the Act, a part of any sum adjudged to be paid by a conviction of a Magistrate has been received by a person authorised to receive it and paid over in accordance with the said section of the Act into the Treasury or to the Magistrate or to his clerk, the clerk shall apply that sum, firstly towards the payment in full or in part of any costs which the Magistrate may have ordered by the conviction to be paid to the prosecutor or complainant; secondly towards the payment in full or in part of any damages or compensation which the Magistrate may have ordered by the conviction to be paid to the prosecutor or complainant; and thirdly in the manner in which section 247 of the Act directs that the fine shall be applied; and in any case where, under the said section, a part of any sum of money adjudged to be paid by an order of a Magistrate has been received by a person authorized to receive it, and paid over in accordance with that section, the clerk shall apply that sum as directed by the order.

10. RECOGNIZANCE ENTERED INTO SEPARATELY. When a defendant has been committed to prison by a Magistrate in default of finding sureties, and the sureties afterwards enter into their recognizance separately from the defendant a certificate in the form numbered 59A in the Schedule shall be sent forthwith by the Magistrate or other person taking their recognizance to the Superintendent of the said prison that such recognizance has been entered into; and, if the defendant has already entered into his recognizance, he shall then be released; and if the defendant has not already entered into his recognizance, the Superintendent shall take his recognizance and discharge him, if held for that cause and no other.

11. CERTIFICATE AS TO CONDITIONS OF RECOGNIZANCE. When a person appears before a Magistrate, or before any clerk of a Magistrate, or before the Commissioner of Police or any other officer of police or constable in charge of any police station for the purpose of entering into a recognizance in pursuance of section 218 of the Act, before he shall be entitled to enter into such recognizance, he shall produce, if so required by such Magistrate, clerk of a Magistrate, Superintendent of Police or any other officer of police or constable, a certificate in the form numbered 59B in the Schedule, from the clerk of the Court the Magistrate of which has required the recognizance or fixed the amount thereof showing the condition of such recognizance and the amount in which the principal and sureties are to be bound.

12. TRANSMISSION OF RECOGNIZANCE. If a recognizance of either the principal or the sureties is taken separately by a Magistrate or person other than the Magistrate who committed the defendant to prison, the recognizance shall forthwith be forwarded to the Court which committed the defendant.

13. MODE OF APPLICATION TO VARY ORDER FOR SURETIES. An application under section 205 of the Act shall be an application for a summons requiring the complainant to show cause why the order made on his complaint shall not be varied.

14. FORM OF SURETY. Any security given under the Act by an oral or written acknowledgement shall be in the form of an undertaking, and may be in the appropriate form in the Schedule.

15. SECURITY BOOK. The Magistrate or his clerk shall keep a security book, and shall enter therein, with respect to each security given in relation to any proceedings before the Court, the name and addresses of each person bound, showing whether he is bound as principal or as surety, the sum in which each person is bound, the undertaking or condition by which he is bound, the date of the security, and the person before whom it is taken. When any such security is not entered into before the Court, or before the clerk of the Court, the person before whom it is entered into shall make a return of it, showing the above particulars, to the clerk of the Court. The security book, and any certified extract therefrom, shall be evidence of the several matters hereby required to be entered in the security book in like manner as if the security book were the register.

16. NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL OF FORFEITURE OF SECURITY. Not less than two clear days before a warrant of distress is issued for a sum due by a principal in pursuance of a forfeited security under the Act, the clerk of the Court issuing the warrant shall cause notice of the forfeiture to be served on the principal. Service of the notice may be effected either by prepaid letter sent to the address mentioned on the security, or as service of a summons may be effected under the Act.

17. PARTICULARS OF CLAIM. In civil proceedings the particulars of claim shall, unless embodied in the summons, be annexed to and, if so annexed, shall be deemed part of the summons.

18. JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION. (1) In all civil proceedings, judgment by confession, or by consent of parties, may be entered at any time, and in every such case a memorandum of such confession or consent, and of the particulars of the judgment to be entered, shall be signed by the party or parties, or their solicitors, in the presence of the Magistrate or Magistrate's clerk, and filed in the Court.

(2) When judgment by confession, or by consent of parties, is entered under this rule, no hearing fee shall be chargeable and the plaintiff shall recover his costs of suit according to the prescribed scale of fees, unless otherwise agreed between the parties.

19. HEARING FEE. The prescribed hearing fee shall be paid by the plaintiff, prior to the commencement of the hearing of all civil proceedings where judgment has not been entered by confession, or consent.

20. INTERPRETER'S FEES. (1) In all civil proceedings where evidence in any language other than English is introduced during the hearing of the proceedings, by any of the parties or their witnesses, the prescribed court interpreter's fee shall be payable.

(2) Such fee shall be payable by the party to the action in whose interest such evidence may be adduced.

(3) Such fee shall be payable in respect of the services of the official court interpreter only:

Provided that the Magistrate may order costs (not exceeding seventy-five dollars as specified in section 154 of the Act) where the services of special unofficial interpreters are engaged during the hearing of any civil proceedings.

(4) Such fees shall not form part of the personal emoluments of the court interpreter, but shall be paid into the Treasury of Antigua and Barbuda.

21. JUDGMENT SUMMONS. An order for commitment under section 157 of the Act shall not be made unless a summons in the form numbered 40 in the Schedule (hereinafter called a judgment summons), or, if the judgment debtor has made default in payment of any instalment of a judgment debt payable in pursuance of an order of the Magistrate, a summons in the form numbered 41A in the Schedule (hereinafter called a summons to a defaulting debtor) has been served on the judgment debtor.

22. SERVICE OF JUDGMENT SUMMONS AND SUMMONS TO DEFAULTING DEBTOR. A judgment summons or summons to a defaulting debtor shall, whenever it is practicable, be served personally on the judgment debtor or defaulting debtor, as the case may be, but if it is made to appear on oath to the Court that prompt personal service is for any reason impracticable, the Court may make such order for substituted or other service as the Court may think just.

23. ISSUE AND PROOF OF SERVICE OF JUDGMENT SUMMONS. A judgment summons may issue although no execution has been applied for, and its service, where made out of the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the summons, may be proved by affidavit or solemn declaration.

24. TIME OF SERVICE. A judgment summons or summons to a defaulting debtor shall be served not less than two clear days before the day on which the judgment debtor or defaulting debtor, as the case may be, is required to appear.

25. ADJOURNMENT AND SUSPENSION. On the hearing of a judgment summons the Magistrate may adjourn the same from time to time either unconditionally or on such conditions as to payment of the judgment debt immediately or at such times as he may order, and in the event of his making a commitment order may direct the issue of the same to be suspended for such time as he shall think fit, but such order of suspension though minuted shall not appear on the face of the order of commitment.

26. WITNESSES ON JUDGMENT SUMMONS. Any witness may be summoned to prove the means of the judgment debtor whether on the hearing of a judgment summons or on an application for the variation of an order of commitment in the same manner as witnesses are summoned to give evidence on the hearing of a complaint.

27. VARIATION OF ORDER. (1) Where an order of commitment after proof of means and ability to pay has been made for the payment of a judgment debt and costs, or by instalments and it appears to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the judgment debtor liable under the order of commitment is unable to pay the sum ordered to be paid at the time or by the instalments ordered, he may, on the application of such judgment debtor made on complaint served on the judgment creditor seven days at least before the hearing of the application, order the amount due and unpaid under the order of commitment to be paid by instalments, or, if already payable by instalments by smaller instalments, and may from time to time vary such order.

(2) In like manner, if it happens to the satisfaction of the Magistrate that the judgment debtor liable under such order of commitment is able to pay the sum ordered to be paid either in one sum or by larger instalments than those ordered he may on the application of the judgment creditor made on the like complaint served on the judgment debtor, order the amount due and unpaid to be paid in one sum, or by larger instalments than those previously ordered, and may from time to time vary such order.

28. DATE OF ORDER OF COMMITMENT. An order of commitment made under section 157 of the Act, shall, on whatever day it is issued, bear the date of the day on which it was made.

29. PAYMENT OF DEBT AFTER COMMITMENT. When an order for commitment is made the judgment debtor may at any time pay the amount due by him (including the costs, if any, of conveying him to prison) to the bailiff, or the Superintendent of the prison, holding the order, who shall forthwith pay over the sums so received by him to the Magistrate or the Magistrate's clerk, or such sums as aforesaid may be paid to the Magistrate or the Magistrate's clerk, who shall in each of the before mentioned cases sign a certificate of the payment.

30. RELEASE OF JUDGMENT DEBTOR. Where the bailiff, or the Superintendent of the prison, holding the order receives payment as aforesaid or receives such certificate as aforesaid, the judgment debtor shall be forthwith released by him.

31. COSTS OF JUDGMENT CREDITOR IN ENFORCING ORDER. All costs incurred by the judgment creditor in endeavouring to enforce an order shall, unless the Court shall otherwise order, be deemed to be due in pursuance of the order, as if it were made under section 4 of the Debtors Act.

32. RELIEF OF OFFICER OF COURT, &C., FROM DUTIES UNDER ORDER. When an order has been made by a Magistrate for periodical payments of money to be made through an officer of the Court or through any other person or officer, if complaint is made by such officer or other person that the person on whose behalf the money is ordered to be paid has persistently received the payments required under the order direct from the person liable to make the payments, the Magistrate may, upon proof thereof, make an order relieving him of his duty under the first mentioned order and requiring that payment be made direct:

Provided also that any such relieving order may be made, without formal complaint being laid at the hearing of any application to enforce the first-mentioned order, if both parties are present.

33. CERTIFICATE OF IMPRISONMENT FOR ARREARS WHERE CHILD BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK. For the purposes of section 127 (2) of the Act, when a person is imprisoned in proceedings for the enforcement of an order in any matter of a child born out of wedlock or of an order enforceable as an order of affiliation, the Superintendent of the prison shall, upon his discharge, send to the clerk of the Magistrate issuing the commitment a certificate showing the dates of his reception into prison and discharge therefrom, and also remit therewith any payment received by him under the commitment, and the clerk of the Magistrate, if payments under the order have been ordered by the Magistrate to be made through an officer of the Court or other person or officer, shall forward such certificate and any payment so remitted to that officer or person.

34. APPLICATION FOR SPECIAL CASE. An application to a Magistrate under section 174 of the Act to state a special case shall be made in writing in the form numbered 45A in the Schedule and the case shall be stated within a month after the date of the application, and after the recognizance shall have been entered into.

35. DRAWING UP CONVICTIONS. Formal convictions giving the decisions of the Court shall not be drawn up unless required for an appeal or some other legal purpose. When it is necessary for such purpose to draw up a conviction the same shall be in one of the forms set forth in the Schedule, unless some other form is prescribed by lawful authority for the particular case.

Upon proper notice being given of appeal against any conviction or order of a Magistrate, or of any motion in the High Court for a writ of mandamus or certiorari in respect of any conviction or order of a Magistrate, and upon payment by the appellant of the appropriate fee and the fee, if any, payable to the Registrar of the High Court, the conviction or order in question shall be drawn up in proper form, and shall be lodged by the clerk of the Magistrate with the Registrar of the High Court, to be filed by him among the records for the next sitting of that Court. Any exhibits which have been put in at the hearing of the case, and which are still in the possession of the Magistrate's Court when such conviction or order is being transmitted to the Registrar of the High Court, shall be forwarded, together with such conviction or order to the said Registrar:

Provided that it shall not be necessary to draw up the conviction or order and file it as aforesaid in any case of an appeal by case stated to the Court of Appeal.

36. PROCEDURE IN REPLEVIN UNDER SECTION 228 OF THE ACT. Where any person desires to replevy any property levied on under a warrant of distress, he shall within the prescribed time apply to a Magistrate, or a clerk to the Magistrate, in the district in which the property has been seized, for a warrant to replevy, and on such person executing a replevin bond, with such surety or sureties as may be required by the Magistrate, or clerk to the Magistrate, in the district in which the property has been seized, for a warrant to replevy, and on such person executing a replevin bond, with such surety or sureties as may be required by the Magistrate, or clerk to the Magistrate, for the due prosecution of an action in replevin without delay, and for return of the goods if such person should fail in such action, the Magistrate, or clerk of the Magistrate, shall issue a warrant to the police officer in whose custody are the goods levied on, directing him to restore such goods to such person as aforesaid, and the goods levied on shall then be restored to the person claiming the same.

37. MISCELLANEOUS APPLICATIONS TO MAGISTRATES. When any person is authorized under any Act or other law to appeal to any Magistrate against the decision or order of any local or other authority or other person or body, the procedure unless otherwise prescribed by the said Act or other law shall be by way of complaint for an order, and the Act shall apply to all such proceedings.

38. NOTICE OF CONDITIONS OF PROBATION. The Notice required under section 3 (3) of the Probation of Offenders Act, shall, before the offender leaves the precincts of the Court, be read over to him (by a probation officer if practicable) in the presence of a third person with such explanation as may be thought desirable.

39. FORMS. The forms in the Schedule, or forms to the like effect, may for the purposes of proceedings under the Act to be used, with such variations as circumstances may require.

The endorsement on the back of a summons in proceedings against the Crown shall contain information as to the circumstances in which it is alleged that the liability of the Crown has arisen and as to the Government departments and officers of the Crown concerned. In such proceedings if the Court considers that the endorsement on the summons does not contain the required information as aforesaid, the Court shall order the plaintiff to supply the said information and shall amend the endorsement accordingly.

6. SET-OFF OR COUNTERCLAIM. (1) In proceedings for the recovery of taxes, duties or penalties a defendant shall not be entitled to avail himself of any set-off or counterclaim, or in proceedings of any other nature, to avail himself of any set-off or counterclaim arising out of a right or claim to repayment in respect of any taxes, duties or penalties.

(b) where the Crown is sued in the name of the Attorney-General.

7. EXECUTION. (1) In this Rule the following expressions have the following meanings—

Provided that no such order shall be made in respect of wages or salary payable to any officer of the Crown as such, or money which is subject to the provisions of any enactment prohibiting or restricting assigning or charging or taking in execution, or money payable by the Crown to any person on account of a deposit in a Government Savings Bank.

(c) The notice shall be served upon the Crown not less than fourteen clear days before the day fixed for the hearing, and where it has been so served the clerk of the Court shall serve a copy thereof on the judgment debtor not less than seven clear days before the day so fixed.

(d) If the Crown disputes liability, the Court may determine the question of the liability of the Crown, and where it is suggested that the debt or money with reference to which the proceedings are taken belongs to some third person, or that any third person has a claim upon it, the Court may order the third person to appear and state the nature and particulars of his claim upon the debt or money, and, after hearing the third person if he appears, the Court may bar the claim of the third person or may order an issue to be tried between the third person and the judgment creditor or make such other order (including an order as to costs) as may be just.
